

Professor Sharon Sullivan AO is a heritage consultant with the following qualifications:

- Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in History and Archaeology (University of New England) 1964
- Diploma of Education (University of New England) 1965
- Master of Arts (Honours) in History and Archaeology (University of New England) 1972
- Getty Conservation Institute Senior Residential Fellowship 2001
- Australian Government Public Service Medal 2001
- Centenary Medal 2001
- Honorary Doctorate in [Philosophy?] (James Cook University of North Queensland) 2003
- Officer in the General Division of the Order of Australia (“For service to cultural heritage conservation, including Indigenous heritage, and to influencing conservation practices worldwide”) 2005
- Honorary Life Member of ICOMOS 2005
- Rhys Jones Memorial Medal for Services to Australian Archaeology awarded by Australian Archaeology Association 2005
- Adjunct Professor, School of Natural and Rural Systems Management, University of Queensland
- Adjunct Professor, Department of Archaeology and Paleoanthropology, School of Human and Environmental Studies, University of New England
- Former Adjunct Professor, School of Anthropology, Archaeology and Sociology, James Cook University of North Queensland
- Former Cultural Heritage Manager, then Regional Manager, then Deputy Executive Director, New South Wales National Parks and Wildlife Service
- Former Executive Director, Australian Heritage Commission
- Former First Assistant Secretary, Australian and World Heritage Group, Commonwealth Department of Environment and Heritage
- Former Australian Government Leader of Delegation, World Heritage Committee
- Fellow of Australian Academy of the Humanities
- Member and Executive Council Member, Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS)
- Member of National Executive Committee of Australia ICOMOS
- Deputy Chair, Port Arthur Historic Site Authority
- Deputy Chair, Heritage Council of New South Wales
- Chair of the State Heritage Register Committee of New South Wales Heritage Council
- Consultant to UNESCO, APSARA and University of Sydney for Greater Angkor World Heritage Area, Cambodia, ‘Living with Heritage’ project
- Author with Dr M Pearson, Looking after Heritage Places: The basics of heritage planning for managers, landowners and administrators, Melbourne University Press, Melbourne, 1998